

Returns and/or Refund Policy

Nature of our business is to provide you with our foods with detailed ingredients specified in our menus. Please pay extra attention to choose your selection from our menu. Because once foods are prepared on customers' order, we cannot undo them.

We have also created special comment sections with every dish you choose for your special requirements. Please do inform us if you have any allergic concerns. We will make our best efforts to cater your request.

It is very unlikely event that we provide you with incorrect dishe(s) rather than you ordered. However if this happens you are entitled for full refund for your order. Or you can request for replacement at no cost.

You can phone us and/or email us and/or mail us your request.
